The state and problems of students' research work at Sociology and Cultural Studies Department of Bauman Moscow State Technical University are described. Modern national research universities have a number of requirements for the involvement of students into scientific research activity of core and non-core departments. Problems of organization and development of research on these departments are determined by their position and significance in educational process of a technical university.

Keywords: students' research work, scientific students' conferences, socio-humanitarian component, technical education, general cultural competence, professional competence.
